Governor Ben Cayetano is proclaiming June 4th Al and April Masini Day at a mahalo reception for the volunteers of the Miss Universe Pageant at Washington Place on Thursday, June 4, 1998 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

"Al and April Masini proved their immense love for Hawaii and the people of the state by devoting close to a year of their time and energy to make the 1998 Miss Universe Pageant wildly successful," said Governor Cayetano.

"Their knowledge and experience played a substantial role in staging two weeks of activities and producing a television show that reflected the look, sound and feel of Hawaii to hundreds of millions of people around the world."

Tenderoni, singer Mario Lazar and Hawaiian band Kaaawa will entertain the hundreds of volunteers who spent endless days and nights to make the 1998 Miss Universe Pageant a huge success.
